Hampsthwaite Village Feast & Show
23rd & 24th July 2005

Foreword by Sir James Aykroyd

My family's association with Hampsthwaite village goes back over eighty years - modest indeed compared with the 701 years of the Hampsthwaite Feast but still something of which I am very proud.

There is an excellent community spirit in the village which is reflected in the many active societies and most recently by the efforts of so many people to help fund the new Church Room. The Feast, of course, remains the great annual event and it is wonderful that so many children and their families take part.

I am honoured to have been asked to open proceedings this year and my wife and I would like to wish everyone a successful and highly enjoyable weekend.

The Feast, Village and the World

Our village Feast goes from strength to strength thanks to the full support of so many Hampsthwaite people. We intend it to remain a local event with a strong focus on children and families, so it is good to see the main growth in numbers arising because residents are inviting friends and relatives to join them for the weekend. We will do our best to ensure a great occasion for all your guests.

This year we have all the attractions of previous years plus a brass band to help you enjoy your teas on Saturday and a Spitfire display on Sunday - yes, a real flying one!

The Feast organisers are keen that we invest in our future so each year we try to do something for the Feast, something for the village and now something for the world. So far, our Feast Engineering group has built a stage platform, a hog roast and two BBQs. With the help of Tim and Jeremy Backhouse and the kind permission of Tony Binns, we improved the school field by building an extra gate and this year we hope to build a new bridge across the stream. Last year we created the web site www.hampsthwaite.org.uk and now we are looking to form active links between our school and one in Africa.

None of this is possible without your full support. Come along, enjoy yourselves and give generously to help us continue this as a great annual treat for all of us, our friends and our families.

Obituary

It is with sadness this year, that we have to announce that George Wainwright is no longer with us. For many years he was 'Mr Feast' and without his commitment it is doubtful we would ever have reached the point we are at today. Thank you, George.
